2001 STEWARD'S PANEL SUGGESTED PENALTIES LIST

Stewards' objectives must be to attain an equal standard for all competitors and to ensure that the race meeting is conducted in an orderly manner.

The only evidence that should be considered at any hearing conducted by the Stewards is that evidence that has been fairly put to the person who may be penalised so that that person has the opportunity to challenge the evidence tendered.

1. Fine (up to $100.00)
2. Revise Finishing Order
3. Written Reprimand
4. Revised Grid Position
5. Place / Points Penalty / Time Penalty / Loss of Points for Heat
OR Excluded from that section of event.
6. Loss of Points For Day
7. Exclusion from Event
8. Exclusion from Meeting (and consider referral to SKC Tribunal)
9. Suspension (Up to 2 months)

SPECIAL NOTES.

- Verbal Warning. Not entered in log book or on Stewards report. (A Verbal Warning is normally given for a minor infringement that does not advantage or disadvantage anybody and which is normally caused by inexperience, lack of familiarity or an error of judgement and is unlikely to be repeated).
- Written Warning. Entered in log book and on Stewards report. (A Written Warning is normally given for an infringement that has not greatly advantaged or disadvantaged anybody but is one the offender should have known better and if a similar offence is repeated it will result in a Complaint).
- A licence with three written warnings in a twelve month period will be referred to the SKC (refer rule 6.24) for a Hearing by a Disciplinary Tribunal
- Distribution of awards after appeal lodged - refer Rule 11.10
- Race needs to be restarted due to red flag incident - refer Rule 16.11
- Change of motors/tyres/frames - refer Rule 19.32 to 19.34
- For Complaint procedure refer to Chapter 7.
